

LinkedIn Direct Links Guide

The LinkedIn Demystifier's LinkedIn Direct Links Guide

The LinkedIn interface is constantly evolving, with menu items moving like the staircases at Hogwarts. Some are removed, others are moved and some links are no longer anywhere in a menu.

To save you pulling out your hair or locating your Superman costume, I have put together this guide containing a list of direct links to hidden or old features that are still hanging around.

Note – Some links will require replacing my username 'josaunders' with your username, or my company page your yours.

CONTENT

Creating, sharing and engaging with content is a valuable part of LinkedIn, but one of the gripes right now is getting back to your article in draft. I often line articles up for publishing and navigating back to the article is a challenge.

Articles and Activity (includes engagement with other's content)
